Position of books published in Indian languages

5381. SHRI KARTAR SINGH DUGGAL: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the position of books published in Indian languages, including English, during 1998-99 as recorded in the National Library, Calcutta;

(b) whether it is a fact that copies of all published works are not deposited with the national libraries which is a statutory requirement; and

(c) if so, what remedial measures are contemplated by Government?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRI ANANTH KUMAR): (a) A statement indicating the position is enclosed (See below).

(b) Not more than a small proportion of such books is being received from the publishers.

(c) (i) Advertisements have been put out in the newspapers by National Library, Calcutta drawing attention to the provisions of the law. The Library authorities have also been writing to major publishers from time to time about the need to fulfil their obligation under the law without exception.

(ii) Government of India, Department of Culture is considering steps to amend the Delivery of Books and Newspapers (Public Libraries) Act, 1954 to make it more effective.
